OpenLearn | Free learning from The Open University

The Open University

Statement of participation

Marina Kantor

has passed the free course including all mandatory tests for:

Take your teaching online

This free 24-hour course shows you how to construct teaching online, using the experiences of real online educators.

Issue date: 13 October 2026

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:
https://www.open.edu/openlearn/education-development/education/take-your-teaching-online/content-section-overview

COURSE CODE: TTO_3

OpenLearn | Free learning from The Open University

The Open University

Take your teaching online

https://www.open.edu/openlearn/education-development/education/take-your-teaching-online/content-section-overview

Course summary

In this free course, Take your teaching online, you will gain knowledge fundamental to delivering effective teaching online. You will hear about the experiences of real educators, be introduced to cutting-edge research, and understand the ideas and tools that shape how we teach and learn online. You will also learn useful methods that will guide you to test out these new ideas in your own practice. This statement serves as proof of the successful completion of a course accredited by the CPD Standards Office. You have earned 24 CPD points through your participation in this course.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- create, or support the creation of, digital material for different contexts in a range of formata
- implement the implementation of, digital approaches to teaching and assessment
- use accessible and inclusive forms of communication, considering the needs of users
- use collaborative digital environments and tools
- understand the educational value of different digital tools for teaching and learning
- share expertise through online communities of professional learning or practice
- use digital information to support decision making
- know where to find digital information sources and services relevant to your professional role.

OpenLearn | Free learning from The Open University

The Open University

Take your teaching online

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Week 1

Teaching online is different

Week 2

Online learning

Week 3

Understanding online learning

Week 4

Selecting technologies

Badge quiz (score 98%)

Week 5

Communities and networks

Week 6

OER and Creative Commons

Week 7

Accessibility in online education

Week 8

Assessment and changing practice

End-of-course quiz (score 97%)